

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAM REPORT

April 1, 2012 – June 30, 2012

WRC-TV attempts to serve the public interest, convenience and necessity by presenting broadcast material that treats significant issues of the people in the communities served by WRC-TV station. WRC recognizes that it has an ongoing obligation to remain aware of such community issues and to exercise its best judgment as to what broadcast matter should be programmed to treat those needs and interests.

The following is a brief description of such community issues and some of the programs we believe have provided the most significant treatment of such issues during the period April 1, 2012 – June 30, 2012 including the title of such program, its time, type, source, date and duration of broadcast.

NEWS FOUR AT FIVE AND ELEVEN A.M., FOUR, FIVE, SIX AND ELEVEN P.M: News Series SOURCE: Local TIME: 5:00-7:00AM, 11:00-12:00 PM, 4:00-5:00PM, 5:00-6:00PM, 6:00-7:00PM, 11:00-11:35PM, Monday – Friday; 6:00-6:30PM, Saturday and Sunday.

NEWS 4 TODAY: News SOURCE: Local TIMES: Weekdays, 5:00-7:00AM, Saturdays, 6:00-7:00AM, 9:00-10:00AM, Sundays, 6:00AM-8:00AM, and 9:00AM-10:30AM. DURATION: See Times. WRC-TV reporters probe special issues of concern to area residents. Stories generally appear more than once in the daily newscasts, as they are recapped throughout the day. WRC-TV initiated, in December 1992, active closed captioning of its news broadcasts. Currently, all regularly scheduled news programs thirty minutes or longer are closed-captioned. Also, special news events sometimes are closed captioned, depending on the availability of the transcription service. The word for word transcription service includes chitchat between stories at two hundred plus words per minute, with less than a three-second delay. This effort addresses the needs of more than 300,000 deaf and hard of hearing people in the Washington area.

THE MCLAUGHLIN GROUP: Public Affairs SOURCE: Syndicated (Originates from WRC-TV studios) TIME: Saturdays, 7:30-8:00PM, Repeated Sundays, 11:30AM. DURATION: thirty Minutes. This public affairs panel anchored by John McLaughlin, features discussion and analysis of current national and world events by five candid and respected Washington commentators.

ONE ON ONE: Public Affairs SOURCE: Syndicated (Originates from WRC-TV) TIME: Sundays, 12:00 DURATION: Thirty Minutes. Host John McLaughlin interviews a prominent political or world leader each week on selected newsworthy issues.

REPORTERS NOTEBOOK: Public Affairs SOURCE: Local TIME: Sundays, 6:15-6:30AM. DURATION: Fifteen Minutes. This reporter roundtable, which premiered on October 4, 1992, features discussion of public affairs issues by leading area journalists. The program is part of News 4 Today and usually is hosted by WRC-TV reporter Tom Sherwood. Journalist Milagros Ardin, WMAL-AM; Dave McConnell, WTOP-AM; and Jerry Phillips, WBIG-FM/WTEM-AM, join him.

VIEWPOINT: Public Affairs SOURCE: Local TIME: Sundays, 7:00-7:30AM. DURATION: Thirty Minutes. WRC-TV's Joe Krebs hosts this weekly exploration of issues and people impacting the community. The program is part of the two hour News 4 Today news block on Sundays from 6:00-8:00AM. It premiered on November 15, 1992

EDUCATION

3-14-12: In honor of Pi Day today, Montgomery County school superintendent Joshua Starr sent his twitter followers to a music video created by a math teacher at Montgomery Blair High School.

3-15-12: "Pink slime," the gelatin like meat by product recently dropped from fast food chains could soon be leaving your kids school lunch menu.

3-15-12: Hawaiian pizza and black bean salad is not exactly what you'd imagine finding in a school lunch line.

3-20-12: There's a new lawsuit over bullying filed in Montgomery County.

3-22-12: Nine gifted students were surprised with full scholarships to George Washington University.

3-23-12: An election year may seem like a good time to teach kids about politics but there's controversy over a political project at one Fairfax County middle school.

4-3-12: Some college students staged a dramatic protest to drive home their point say they are burdened by debt when they graduate.

4-4-12: Hundreds of students and staff at ACT College in Northern Virginia are in sudden limbo.

4-4-12: There is a report tonight from the Washington City Paper that Howard University has temporarily suspended its athletics program.

4-5-12: Students and staff at the ACT College in Northern Virginia are scrambling after the school closed abruptly this week.

4-12-12: The battle over gay rights is playing out in Montgomery County high schools this week.

4-13-12: Virginia's department of education will visit Alexandria City schools next week to investigate the district's adult education program.

4-16-12: Preparations are underway for Discovery's final flight and it's expected to be a crowd pleaser.

4-17-12: Shuttle watching hot spots for the Discovery.

4-17-12: The space shuttle Discovery is now on the ground after a historic flight over our area.

4-18-12: Officials in the district have unveiled a new plan aimed at improving student performance.

4-18-12: It was a thrilling sight yesterday as space shuttle Discovery soared into Dulles on its final flight.

4-19-12: The retired shuttle Discovery is being moved into its new home today - the Smithsonian museum near Dulles airport.

4-20-12: Today the public got the first chance to see the space shuttle Discovery at its new home.

4-24-12: A seventh grade English teacher in California now has one of U.S. education's highest awards.

4-27-12: The space shuttle Enterprise has a perfect flight to its new home in New York.

4-30-12: School officials in Montgomery County are angry over cheating accusations aimed at one of its blue ribbon schools.

5-9-12: Thomas Jefferson High School in Alexandria has been named 2nd best in the country.

5-11-12: Words of encouragement from the First Lady closed the year for Virginia Tech's class of 2012.

5-14-12: A New York Janitor defied the odds and earned an Ivy League degree this weekend.

5-14-12: Montgomery County Public Schools are mourning the loss of a legendary educator.

5-18-12: Thousands were on hand to see the latest class of graduates at George Mason University.

5-21-12: A Fairfax County teacher is being rewarded for her devotion.

5-21-12: Our area is home to more than 2 dozen of the very best high schools in the country.

5-23-12: A teenage girl in New York suspended from high school after trying to fight bullying.

6-7-12: For the fourth year in a row Montgomery County is on top when it comes to graduating its students.

6-7-12: The region's largest school district has been under fire over its student discipline policy.

6-8-12: Some Herndon High school students are asking for forgiveness after being suspended for an end of the year prank.

ENVIRONMENT

3-14-12: A spring event here in the nation's capital will happen ahead of schedule.

3-15-12: You may spot a stink bug on a warm day like this and experts say that's normal.

3-19-12: Tomorrow is the official start of the cherry blossom festival.

3-20-12: The cherry blossoms on the tidal basin managed to survive this morning's storm.

3-22-12: Tourists have been flocking to the tidal basin for the annual Cherry Blossom Festival.

3-23-12: This may be the last week to see the cherry blossoms in full bloom.

3-26-12: With the mild winter we had a lot of people in our region got an early start on their spring gardening.

4-3-12: Three major roads in Virginia are getting a name change.

4-3-12: Tornadoes barrel through Texas carving a path of destruction.

5-16-12: Efforts going on in Culpeper Virginia to save a historic church after an earthquake that shook the region.

5-18-12: Birds are taking over a neighborhood in Southeast D.C.

5-22-12: One year ago today one of the strongest deadliest tornadoes in the nation's history left its permanent mark on Joplin Missouri.

5-22-12: Heavy rain overnight leaving its mark across northern Virginia and the wet weather isn't over.

5-24-12: What the National Park Service is doing to keep people safe in the water this summer.

5-24-12: An up close look at the hazards along the Potomac River.

5-28-12: Hurricane Beryl barreled through the southeast overnight hitting Jacksonville, Florida.

5-28-12: People are finding ways to beat the heat as they enjoy a day off from work and school.

5-28-12: Tropical storm Beryl hits Jacksonville Florida at a near hurricane strength.

5-28-12: Thousands remain in the dark after the latest storm from Jacksonville Beach, Florida.

5-28-12: People are finding ways to beat the heat as they enjoy a day off from work and school.

5-29-12: Investigators are sifting through the rubble trying to figure out what sparked a fire at a storage facility in Alexandria.

6-1-12: The severe weather is knocking out power to customers throughout the area.

6-1-12: Mother Nature is making a real mess of the evening commute and it's not over yet.

6-4-12: Firefighters are dealing with a loss today as they battle wildfires in two western states.

6-4-12: Teams from the national weather service are surveying the damage after severe storms wreaked havoc across the region on Friday.

HEALTH

3-13-12: Doctors at the University of Virginia have helped the world's tallest man stop growing.

3-14-12: Indoor cycling classes are hard enough but imagine singing on the top of your lungs while riding your bike on this week's, "What's Your Workout?"

3-14-12: Women may need to find a different nickname for an annual Pap smear test.

3-16-12: Broken Heart Syndrome, a sudden, overwhelming, emotional incident that can change your life and your health.

3-19-12: A dog that helped rescuers at the Pentagon on September 11th is getting a new lease on life.

3-20-12: How to screen for heart abnormalities which is one of the most common birth defect in newborns.

3-21-12: A new fitness class that promises to get you lean and mean and transform you into what they call a Flex-a-Babe on "What's Your Workout."

3-23-12: There's a growing list of schools that will no longer use the beef known as "pink slime."

3-26-12: Wildlife experts in Fairfax County are trying a new technique to help get rid of ticks and reduce the number of cases of Lyme disease.

3-26-12: A new study suggests a surgery that is used to help people lose weight could double as a diabetes treatment.

3-26-12: Some medical experts are coming to Dick Cheney's defense after undergoing a heart transplant this weekend.

3-27-12: 15 years ago, a Virginia man was severely injured in a gun accident.

3-28-12: Washington Sports Club is offering a class where people don't exactly exercise to the death but it is a matter of survival of the fittest.

3-29-12: The Department of Health says it will announce which cultivation center applicants got permits.

3-29-12: A new study suggests autism cases are rising sharply or that more cases are being discovered.

3-30-12: Natural remedies for people who suffer from bad allergies.

3-30-12: Medical marijuana is one step closer to becoming a reality in the District.

4-2-12: Doctors at the Mayo clinic are seeing a dramatic rise in the number of young adults with skin cancer.

4-3-12: Doctors are finding success with a new treatment to traumatic brain injuries that doesn't require medication.

4-3-12: Former Vice President Dick Cheney was discharged from the hospital this morning ten days after a heart transplant.

4-4-12: Meeting up with America's Miss DC, Sarah Hillware, to ask what her workout is.

4-9-12: A website that has dieters putting wagers down on how much they can lose.

4-10-12: Federal regulators are now warning that some popular birth control pills are putting patients at significant risk for developing blood clots.

4-18-12: Dieters can measure their progress with a new fitness program at Washington Sports Club called UFX- the ultimate fitness experience.

4-19-12: Measles are on the rise in the U.S. according to a new report released today from the Centers of Disease Control.

4-20-12: A Pennsylvania man wasn't sure he'd ever be able to stand after becoming paralyzed from the neck down.

4-20-12: Metro says it's completed installing new defibrillators at all of its rail stations.

4-23-12: As many as 40 percent of migraine sufferers could benefit from preventative treatments.

4-25-12: classes at a gym called Melt that will help give aching muscles some relief.

5-1-12: Silicone Injection as a deadly beauty trend.

5-2-12: A Fairfax County woman who kicked and punched her way to weight loss and dropped nearly 70 pounds.

5-4-12: A look at tanorexia, the addiction to tanning, after a mother is accused of taking her little girl to a salon.

5-7-12: A local doctor who's trying to overcome the obesity epidemic.

5-8-12: A look into the Washington Capitals diet plan that helps them stay focused and energized on the ice.

5-9-12: Concussions have become an epidemic in youth sports. And it turns out girls are injured twice as often as boys.

5-9-12: Check out Bikini Body workout at the Washington Sports Club.

5-10-12: A new study finds young adults are risking their health by going to tanning beds.

5-14-12: A grad student in Georgia is fighting for her life tonight after contracting a rare flesh eating bacteria.

5-14-12: Some common household items creating a spike in emergency room visits nationwide.

5-15-12: A new technique called "Cold Cap Therapy" is changing the way cancer patients see their hair.

5-15-12: The Obama Administration declares war against Alzheimer's disease.

5-16-12: A new class at Equinox gym promises to make your body a fat burning machine.

5-16-12: Another woman is in critical condition tonight fighting a rare flesh eating bacteria.

5-21-12: A dramatic turn of events for the woman fighting a rare flesh-eating bacteria.

5-21-12: Screening for prostate cancer may do more harm than good.

5-22-12: New information about preventing a cancer reoccurrence.

5-23-12: Mommy boot camp for moms keeping up with exercising after having kids.

5-24-12: A 67-year old grandfather is the victim of a rare, flesh-eating bacteria in Georgia.

5-24-12: Babies born by C-section are twice as likely to be obese by the age of three as babies born naturally.

5-25-12: Tide is making changes to its new detergent product after it sickened hundreds of children.

6-5-12: Health officials in Massachusetts are trying to figure out how a six year old boy contracted a deadly E. coli infection.

6-5-12: Cosmetic breast surgery at breakfast time then socializing by dinner.

6-5-12: D.C. police got a chance to try some zumba, get their weight and blood pressure checked and work their football skills.

6-6-12: Penthouse pool challenge on this week's "What's Your Workout?"

6-7-12: It's an unprecedented gathering of doctors, politicians, and public health officials on Capitol Hill for the first ever Soda Summit.

CONSUMER

3-12-12: Retail store, Sears, is coming under fire for some t-shirts on its website.

3-12-12: If you think your laptop is made to use on your laptop think again.

3-13-12: A multi-billion dollar settlement over alleged foreclosure abuse will force banks to pay homeowners under water.

3-13-12: A lot of people are talking online about a new marketing tool that turns homeless people into portable internet hotspots.

3-13-12: Consumers claiming Apple's commercials are misleading and deceptive about "Siri" and its capabilities.

3-14-12: Huggies is changing a new diaper ad after thousands of complaints on its Facebook page.

3-14-12: The first one hundred slots were unloaded at the Maryland Live Casino today.

3-15-12: From cash register confusion to the thunder shirt and gym membership warnings, Liz Crenshaw has brought to light some important and interesting stories over the last few months.

3-15-12: This early spring like weather is good news for some businesses in our area but for some other not so much.

3-16-12: Two Prince George's County sites could become home to new gaming facilities in Maryland.

3-16-12: Triple A says prices are the highest they've ever been for this time of the year.

3-16-12: Ask Liz: insurance rates after an accident, aluminum foil, and nutrients in frozen vegetables.

3-16-12: This weekend's going to involve a lot of high resolution "screen time" for the faithful apple fans who camped out overnight.

3-16-12: Planning started ten years ago today and today the major redevelopment of some prime real estate in Merrifield, Virginia is well underway.

3-19-12: Liz Crenshaw shares a handful of mobile apps to help you save time and money when shopping for a used car.

3-21-12: People in our area are getting a sneak peak at The Hunger Games, the wildly popular book that's heading to the big screen.

3-22-12: Replacing an appliance or making a home improvement can put an unexpected dent in your wallet.

3-22-12: New affordable housing is available in the District.

3-22-12: Sex sells and one local shop is getting a lot of attention for one of its curbside ads.

3-23-12: On this week's Ask Liz: rent control laws, Excedrin disappearance, and disposal of old kitchen knives.

3-26-12: Saving money on your vehicle insurance rates.

3-26-12: A new government report shows how much gas we're wasting on a daily basis.

3-26-12: The Shed Pal promises a pain free grooming with a massaging brush and no mess but does it really do that?

3-27-12: BMW is recalling more than a million vehicles.

3-27-12: Closing time for bars in the district could be later if Mayor Vincent Gray has his way.

3-28-12: Some restaurants are posed for a comeback after a part of Georgetown was swamped by floodwaters from the Potomac.

3-29-12: Today on Ask Liz, answering awkward money moments.

3-29-12: The highest jackpot in history is at 540 million and climbing.

3-30-12: It's going to take major luck to win the 640 million dollar mega millions lottery.

3-30-12: Tom Sietsema reviews Blue 44, a new restaurant in Chevy Chase.

3-30-12: A warning about a potential security breach for Visa or MasterCard.

3-30-12: People still hope to hit the 640 million dollar mega millions jackpot.

4-2-12: Some tricks of the trade with spring cleaning.

4-2-12: Three winning Mega millions tickets were sold in Maryland, Kansas, and Illinois.

4-3-12: A warning tonight about scammers posing as the IRS.

4-3-12: Tonight there's still no official word on who bought a winning Mega Millions ticket in Maryland.

4-5-12: Kilmer Middle school students make their journey through Finance Park.

4-6-12: The winner of the Powerball in Kansas has decided to remain anonymous while the Baltimore woman claiming to have won has lost her ticket.

4-6-12: The Kansas lottery has given a news conference about the winner of the Powerball.

4-9-12: Facebook made a very big buy today to expand its online social media empire.

4-9-12: After a 29 million dollar renovation and a 30 year hiatus the historic Howard Theatre is preparing for its big opening night.

4-10-12: Last year's Caribbean parade down Georgia Ave in Northwest Washington was probably the last.

4-10-12: Two public school teachers and a school administrator from Baltimore have come forward to claim that record winning mega millions jackpot.

4-11-12: The U.S. government is going after Apple and other major e-book publishers.

4-12-12: Head to the D.C. film festival for a good laugh.

4-16-12: Companies are giving out big discounts as tax season comes to a close.

4-17-12: The debate over drinking hours in the district is heating up.

4-18-12: We now know the names and faces of the third and final winners of last month's record mega Millions jackpot.

4-19-12: Liz Crenshaw is here tonight with a warning when shopping for a home security service.

4-20-12: On Ask Liz: acetone in your gas tank, colored lights on airplane wings, and important documents.

4-23-12: Robocalls to your phone are illegal unless you give consent.

4-23-12: A new report shows the trust funds that support the social security program will run out of money three years earlier than previously thought.

4-24-12: Costco is the nation's second largest retailer and the world's leading warehouse membership chain.

4-24-12: Carbon monoxide poisoning and how to be safe.

4-25-12: People in Montgomery County are waging a battle against plans for a gas station at the new Costco.

4-26-12: One local organization is trying to cure D.C.'s food deserts with fresh produce on the corner.

4-27-12: Does Ikea plastic ware contain BPA, finding unclaimed funds, and getting rid of old x-rays on this edition of Ask Liz.

4-27-12: William Lindsay of Woodbridge, Virginia hit the one million dollar Powerball jackpot this week.

4-27-12: RG3 fever is hotter than ever now that Baylor quarterback Robert Griffin the third is officially on the Redskins roster.

4-30-12: A common scam targeting seniors about distressed grandchildren.

5-1-12: A warning tonight about a telephone scam targeting folks in Virginia, an airline looking to cut fuel costs by buying an oil refinery, and Facebook's latest status update aimed at saving lives.

5-3-12: Travel agent comebacks that can save you more money while booking vacations.

5-3-12: A man-beast roaming the woods of Prince George's County devouring those caught alone in the woods.

5-3-12: new details are trickling out about Facebook's initial public offering.

5-4-12: Questions for Ask Liz: difference between regular and premium gasoline, how to ripen an avocado, and a class action settlement lawsuit against Nutella.

5-4-12: Metro slated to for major repair work during big events in Washington.

5-4-12: Washington Post Food Critic Tom Sietsema checks out La Forcetta.

5-7-12: A new study shows many of the city's lower and moderate income residents are being priced out of the market.

5-8-12: A Springfield family is calling attention to a doggie day care and grooming business after their dog ran away.

5-8-12: With gas prices hovering around 4 dollars a gallon, some are trying to drive less.

5-10-12: Its time again for the D.C. 101 chili cook-off benefiting the National Kidney Foundation.

5-10-12: Heated debate over plans to build a Costco gas station in Wheaton.

5-11-12: Ask Liz: rules regarding noisy construction projects start times recycle old computer batteries and games, and how to stop unwanted credit card offers in the mail.

5-11-12: The woman who threw away a 1 million dollar lottery ticket says she deserves the prize not the woman who found the ticket and cashed it in.

5-11-12: Washington Post Food Critic Tom Sietsema checks out Rasika West End.

5-14-12: Plans to protect your cell phone, e-reader, or tablet to the beach this summer.

5-15-12: Projected travel numbers are out for this Memorial Weekend.

5-15-12: The rate hike proposal is currently before the public service commission.

5-15-12: Protesters armed with cakes and bullhorns converged outside the Pepco headquarters to protest a proposed rate hike.

5-16-12: The love story behind the famous Missoni brand was born at the 1948 Olympics.

5-16-12: Moses Stone from the voice is back in the D.C. area to talk about how his life has changed.

5-16-12: A food truck has growing complaints about the attire of the workers.

5-16-12: Sketchers shape-ups promise to give muscles a better workout than regular shoes, but the company will pay millions after settling a lawsuit with 44 states including Virginia.

5-17-12: Facebook stock goes on sale tomorrow on Wall Street.

5-17-12: Graduation parties and father's day has folks in search of the perfect gift.

5-18-12: Washington Post Food Critic Tom Sietsema checks out a restaurant in DuPont Circle.

5-18-12: Another negative day for stocks but of course all eyes were on the Facebook shares.

5-21-12: Avoid getting bitten by gigabytes when it comes to smart phones.

5-22-12: Holiday travel, preparing for a hurricane, and emergency alerts sent to your phone.

5-22-12: A local woman is cashing in at the altar.

5-24-12: The best ways to battle the bugs this summer.

5-24-12: A shortage of helium could put a damper on upcoming celebrations.

5-25-12: Food critic Tom Sietsema reviews the Green Pig Bistro in Arlington.

5-29-12: The latest report on consumer confidence was released today and the death of two children left in a hot car.

5-31-12: People can contract pretty dangerous diseases from their pets.

5-31-12: The largest city in the nation is promising a massive ban on mega soft drinks.

6-5-12: Its costing more to travel, Starbucks plans to revamp its menu, and it just got harder to fight a camera ticket when driving in D.C.

6-6-12: We are a few hours away from the grand opening of Maryland's biggest and newest casino.

6-7-12: Herb garden recipes perfect for summertime.

6-7-12: People will now get a chance to stand up to their fears at Six Flags America.

6-7-12: The construction project that's made it more difficult to navigate around Adams Morgan is now jumping to another popular D.C. neighborhood.

6-7-12: Maryland live, the state's fifth and biggest casino, is now open.

6-8-12: Speed and red light camera laws, cost to raise the thermostat, and the difference between a blender and a food processor on this edition of Ask Liz.

6-8-12: Food critic Tom Sietsema reviews Curry Mantra in Fairfax County.

TRANSPORTATION

3-12-12: The national average of regular gas jumped 12 cents in the past two weeks.

3-13-12: If you drive to Arlington, you better watch out for those red lights.

3-19-12: On a future flight, you may not have to turn off your favorite electronic devices like an I-pad or DVD player.

3-19-12: Older travelers have fewer hassles to get through airport security.

3-19-12: Those red top parking meters in the District are causing a lot of confusion.

3-20-12: D.C. is red faced over its effort to install red top meters for disabled drivers.

3-20-12: Outrage is building over a viral video showing a toddler in a wheelchair getting a pat down by airline security.

3-21-12: A lot of drivers are saying the new red top parking meters are too confusing.

3-26-12: Speed cameras on green lights if you speed through an intersection.

3-27-12: Current laws aren't enough to curb the deadly habit of driving while distracted.

3-28-12: Regional Metro officials are surprised and worried that President Obama is cutting back on planned federal funding needed for repairs.

3-28-12: A jet blue pilot suspended and now criminally charged after a mid-air meltdown yesterday.

3-29-12: They're metro's brand new escalators in more than a decade but some units at the Foggy Bottom station had some problems this week.

3-29-12: Your drive time on the beltway could be cut in half when Virginia's new express lanes open.

3-29-12: New calls to clear up the confusion surrounding those red top parking meters.

3-30-12: A repaving project for the Fairfax County parkway.

4-2-12: Despite higher fares and new fees and annual survey shows airline performance has steadily improved over recent years.

4-30-12: There's a new effort underway to make sure the metro to Dulles project isn't derailed.

5-3-12: The news4 lteam takes a look at the huge highway signs and light poles along out roadways.

5-3-12: Trouble for commuters who rely on metro surrounding several big events.

5-4-12: hoping to improve efficiency and on-time performance, Metro is looking at consolidating its bus stops.

5-7-12: The future of air travel has landed here in the district.

5-9-12: If you're planning on flying this summer get ready for ticket prices to soar as well.

5-9-12: A new metro study finds the Blue Line has the worst on0time performance at 88 percent.

5-9-12: A new battle in the fight to bring Metro to Dulles.

5-10-12: It was a terrible Navy jet crash last month that damaged or destroyed dozens of apartments in Virginia Beach.

5-10-12: New insight tonight from Metro after a string of accidents.

5-11-12: In Fairfax County, elected leaders put the spotlight today on yet another BRAC facility they fear will snarl traffic.

5-16-12: The silver line project is under scrutiny tonight after a surprising new report.

5-17-12: D.C. leaders got a first-hand look at the future of driving today with Google's self-driving car.

5-18-12: Metro riders should expect major delays this weekend.

5-18-12: Thousands of local commuters took to their bikes for "National Bike to Work Day."

5-18-12: Close calls with Metro Buses and the transit system says it happens all the time.

5-21-12: Scary moments for commuters after a school bus caught fire inside the third street tunnel in D.C.

5-25-12: Astronauts received their first ever commercial delivery when space X's dragon capsule docked this morning.

5-25-12: Travelers heading toward the eastern shore for the first time since last summer may be surprised by the new toll prices.

5-25-12: More people will be traveling this holiday weekend because gas prices are down.

5-25-12: Memorial Day weekend is here and the rush is on to get to the beach.

5-28-12: An 80-year olds attempt at skydiving goes terribly wrong and it was all caught on tape.

5-28-12: An update on the breaking news on a plane crash in Fauquier County this afternoon.

5-28-12: Virginia State Police are investigating a report of a plane down in the southern section of Fauquier County.

5-29-12: The Inter-county connector is giving motorists a quick, direct drive between Montgomery and Prince George's County.

5-30-12: A major security breach from San Diego airport.

5-31-12: A new report reveals deadly car crashed involving teenagers could be dramatically cut by changing the rules of the road.

5-31-12: For a second day in a row, an American eagle flight at Chicago O'Hare had to make an emergency landing.

5-31-12: Police in Northern Virginia joined forces to get unsafe big rigs off the road.

5-31-12: it's the government's latest single safety crackdown on the motor coach industry.

6-4-12: Residents will have a chance to sound off on the metro to Dulles project.

6-4-12: Metro is preparing for some of the most drastic service changes in its history.

6-4-12: Were just 2 days away from the grand opening on Maryland's newest casino.

6-6-12: A controversial vote today removes an obstacle blocking construction on phase two of Metro's Silver line.

6-7-12: Targeting people who talk and text behind the wheel.

POLITICS

3-12-12: Mitt Romney and Rick Santorum are facing another test: the Alabama and Mississippi primaries.

3-12-12: A bill before D.C. council aims would broaden the criteria for reporting child sex abuse case.

3-13-12: A flurry of subpoenas issued in connection with the campaign corruption case that had rocked the D.C. political establishment.

3-13-12: The Republican presidential candidates are facing another critical test today as Alabama and Mississippi are holding primaries today.

3-14-12: Council chairman Kwame Brown says he's looking into a flurry of grand jury subpoenas to council members that News 4 first disclosed.

3-14-12: President Obama and British Prime Minister David Cameron met to discuss how to move forward with the volatility in the Middle East.

3-15-12: Montgomery County Council Executive Isaiah Leggett unveiled his plans for the 2013 budget today.

3-15-12: More new developments tonight in the campaign scandal that is shaking up D.C. politics.

3-15-12: A swarm of reporters surrounding Rod Blagojevich as he left his home this morning as he is about to serve a 14 year prison sentence.

3-15-12: President Obama visited Prince George's Community College today to talk about energy.

3-19-12: Calling it quits appears to be harder than saying "I do" for same sex couples.

3-19-12: Democrats are stepping up their fundraising efforts.

3-19-12: All eyes are on Illinois during the Republican presidential race.

3-20-12: Today the granddaughter of the late president Dwight D. Eisenhower told congress the family wants some changes in a memorial planned in his honor.

3-20-12: The Republican primary in Illinois could prove pivotal in the race for the White House.

3-21-12: Mitt Romney is coming off a commanding win in the Illinois primary.

3-22-12: Some cities are accusing President Obama of playing pipeline politics.

3-22-12: New development tonight on that Federal criminal investigation into D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray's 2010 campaign.

3-26-12: Pope Benedict is now in Cuba for an historic 3 day visit.

3-26-12: Republican Presidential Candidate Rick Santorum appeared outside the Supreme Court today to press his argument that he is the best candidate to challenge President Obama on health care issues in the fall.

3-26-12: It's been a wild day at the Supreme Court as arguments got underway over the Obama Administration's health care law.

3-27-12: A key figure in the Federal corruption probe into district politics has withdrawn from a prominent accounting firm he founded.

3-27-12: With the primary a week from today, the GOP candidates are putting a focus on Maryland.

3-27-12: The Supreme Court heard a second day of arguments today in the health care law case. The justices' decision will ultimately affect almost every American.

3-28-12: Were getting our first look at the ticket given to Prince George's County councilmember Karen Toles.

3-28-12: Now to a hotly contested primary in Maryland's 6th Congressional District.

3-28-12: The fate of the nation's health care law rests with the nine justices on the Supreme Court.

3-29-12: President Obama's plan to cut billions in tax breaks for big oil companies was defeated in the Senate.

3-30-12: Here in D.C., the primary race for the at-large council seat has largely focused on ethics issues.

4-2-12: President Obama is meeting with the President of Mexico and the prime minister of Canada at the white House today.

4-2-12: Polls in Maryland will be open from 7 in the morning to 8 at night.

4-3-12: Voters are going to the polls today for Presidential primaries in the district, Maryland, and Wisconsin.

4-4-12: Mitt Romney is looking forward today after a decisive sweep of Tuesday's primaries in Wisconsin, Maryland, and Virginia.

4-4-12: A hotly contested House race is now set for this fall.

4-4-12: Councilman Marion Barry won the democratic nomination to represent Ward 8 yesterday and virtually secured another four year term on the council.

4-6-12: A lesbian couple is pushing for the right to divorce in Maryland.

4-6-12: Fallout continues after Marion Barry's comments about Asian storefronts in Ward 8 being quote "dirty."

4-9-12: A showdown over slot machines and tables games in the Maryland legislature.

4-10-12: Rick Santorum suspends his campaign from the republican nomination.

4-11-12: This is the first full day that Mitt Romney has been on the campaign trail without having to look over his shoulder for Rick Santorum.

4-11-12: The man behind the controversial crackdown on illegal immigrants in Prince William County is running for lieutenant governor.

4-12-12: President Obama's reelection campaign hoped to keep the focus on taxing the rich and Mitt Romney's wealth today.

4-13-12: Some new shots were fired this afternoon in the latest round of the so-called "Mommy Wars."

4-17-12: Speaker Boehner is the final member of the House GOP leadership to announce support for Mitt Romney.

4-17-12: President Obama tackled a key threat to his re-election prospects- high gas prices.

4-23-12: Leaders in Prince George's County are hoping the governor will call for a special session that'll revive plans for a county casino.

4-24-12: Another attempt at reaching a budget agreement failed in Maryland today.

4-24-12: A second day of damaging testimony just wrapped up in North Carolina against John Edwards.

4-24-12: Virginia governor Bob McDonnell is often mentioned as a possible Mitt Romney running mate.

4-24-12: Presidential primaries in New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, and Delaware.

4-25-12: Homeland Security Secretary Janet Napolitano called the secret service scandal inexcusable.

4-25-12: Newt Gingrich is suspending his campaign.

4-26-12: In just a few more hours Robert Griffin the third will be a Washington Redskin.

4-26-12: A defiant Marion Barry rejected phone calls today to apologize for racially insensitive remarks he made about Filipino nurses.

4-27-12: the House passed a republican bill that would keep student loan interest rates for a year.

4-27-12: A new twist surrounding former D.C. councilman Harry Thomas.

4-30-12: Republicans are blasting president Obama for a new campaign as that comes nearly a year to the day after the death of Osama bin Laden.

5-1-12: President Obama makes a surprise trip to Afghanistan.

5-1-12: President Obama is in Afghanistan at this very hour.

5-1-12: Occupy protestors and labor unions join forces in May Day rallies across the country.

5-1-12: 100 US Secret Service agents will spend their day with professors from Johns Hopkins University.

5-2-12: D.C. bars will not be able to stay open any later.

5-2-12: D.C. mayor Vincent Gray says he was shocked by the corruption scandal surrounding former council member Harry Thomas Jr.

5-2-12: After a poor showing in the primaries Newt Gingrich made it official this afternoon.

5-2-12: Mitt Romney ramps up his campaign with stops across northern Virginia today.

5-3-12: Dog lovers are sounding off about a court ruling in Maryland about pit bulls.

5-3-12: The U.S. attorney's office is still investigating two other criminal probes in the District.

5-4-12: One day after a former D.C. council member is sentenced to prison federal prosecutors say they're aggressively pursuing other allegations of corruption in the city government.

5-4-12: A new poll shows president Obama with a lead over Mitt Romney in the battleground state of Virginia.

5-4-12: A woman who identifies herself as the Colombian prostitute at the center of the Secret Service scandal spoke publicly about it for the first time today.

5-15-12: The Maryland state senate approved a spending deal.

5-15-12: Montgomery County Council members just voted in favor of an ambulance fee.

5-16-12: Kenyan McDuffie is the new ward 5 council member in the District to replace convicted felon Harry Thomas Jr.

5-17-12: A bill that would ban abortions in D.C. after 20 weeks of pregnancy is generating controversy.

5-17-12: State lawmakers approved a new round of income tax hikes.

5-18-12: A heckler is hauled away after interrupting the commencement speaker at Georgetown University.

5-18-12: World leaders are gathering at Camp David for this weekend's Group 8 Summit.

5-21-12: Today the Archdiocese of Washington filed a lawsuit against the Federal government for its mandate on birth control coverage.

5-21-12: The NAACP says same sex marriage is a civil right.

5-21-12: Federal prosecutors filed the first criminal charges related to a yearlong investigation of D.C. mayor Vincent Gray.

5-22-12: A top campaign aide to Mayor Gray appears in court and admits to corruption charges.

5-23-12: New developments in the scandal involving Mayor Vincent Gray's 2010 campaign for mayor.

5-23-12: An apology today from the head of the secret service for the prostitution scandal that rocked the agency.

5-24-12: Marion Barry is trying to move past comments he made last month about Asian businesses and Filipino nurses.

5-24-12: A second person has pleaded guilty to charges in connection to Vincent Gray's 2010 campaign for mayor.

5-25-12: More fallout from a federal investigation into Vincent Gray's 2010 campaign for mayor.

5-28-12: The commander of U.S. forces in Afghanistan marked Memorial Day by reading a letter written by a fallen marine sergeant.

5-28-12: President Obama sent this Memorial Day honoring the sacrifice of the men and women who gave their lives in service to our country.

5-28-12: President Obama spent his memorial day honoring the sacrifice of the men and women who gave their lives in service to our country.

5-28-12: The commander of U.S. forces in Afghanistan marked Memorial Day by reading a letter written by a fallen marine sergeant.

5-29-12: Mitt Romney will clinch the republican nomination if he wins the Texas primary tonight.

5-30-12: D.C. mayor Vincent Gray is keeping quiet amid a campaign scandal swirling around his administration.

6-4-12: President Barack Obama and Mitt Romney are on the road today raising cash for their campaigns.

6-5-12: 3 people including a former D.C. Attorney General have now been nominated to serve on the city's new Board of Ethics.

6-5-12: District leaders introduced emergency legislation in response to a new immigration enforcement reform.

6-6-12: D.C. council chairman Kwame Brown has been charged with bank fraud and is expected to resign.

6-6-12: Kwame Brown is accused of overstating his income on loan applications by tens of thousands of dollars.

6-7-12: First lady Michelle Obama made her first campaign stop in Northern Virginia today on behalf of the president.

6-7-12: The corruption scandal has many asking who's in charge and what's next.

6-7-12: Former council chairman Kwame Brown has been hit with another criminal charge today.

6-8-12: Prosecutors describe it as a "dark and unfortunate day" in the city's history on the Kwame Brown scandal.

6-8-12: President Obama held a news conference today to talk about the economy.

6-8-12: Kwame Brown pleads guilty to felony bank fraud and a misdemeanor campaign violation.

VIOLENCE CRIME

3-12-12: Two dogs found mauled with serious injuries in Anne Arundel County.

3-12-12: There will be no jail time for a Prince William County mother initially charged with murder for leaving her toddler in a hot van last summer.

3-12-12: Leaders worldwide are condemning the deaths of more than a dozen Afghan villagers apparently at the hands of an American soldier.

3-12-12: Charges have been dropped against a Montgomery County middle school teacher accused of having sex with a former student.

3-12-12: We begin with the threat that left the University of Maryland campus on edge over the weekend.

3-13-12: A 5 month old son was being strapped into his car seat when a carjacker jumped into the family SUV and took off.

3-13-12: A man who admitted to an arson spree that landed several D.C. firefighters in the hospital was sentenced today.

3-13-12: President Obama is promising a thorough investigation into the shooting rampage in Afghanistan.

3-13-12: 51 year old Philip Gilberti has been on the run since a gruesome shooting around 9:30 this morning.

3-13-12: A command post has been setup in Rockville after a search for a Kensington man.

3-14-12: Thousands of young people from abroad are placed in American homes every year in a student exchange program overseen by the State Department.

3-14-12: The NAACP is calling for the U.S. Justice Department to formally look into the case of a neighborhood watch captain who shot and killed an unarmed teen in Florida.

3-14-12: A Montgomery County man shot and killed his estranged wife in Kensington yesterday just hours after getting out of jail for violating a restraining order.

3-14-12: Hash has been in prison for more than 12 years because a judge cited misconduct by police and prosecutors.

3-15-12: A Michigan boy escapes death for the second time and his calling his big brother a hero.

3-15-12: There are people out there eyeing the electronics you leave in your car but not necessarily who you think.

3-15-12: New information about the charges against Army Private Bradley Manning came out in court at Fort Meade today.

3-15-12: A Virginia dentist is under arrest tonight accused of illegally prescribing thousands of prescription pills and giving them to patients and women he dated.

3-15-12: Philip Gilberti arrested twice for violating a protective order.

3-16-12: A South Carolina family is cleaning up today after a fire started by their cat destroyed their home.

3-16-12: Police in Florida say they've nabbed a man who took a teenager out on a date to keep her occupied while his partner in crime robbed her house.

3-16-12: A former Rutgers student could spend 10 years behind bars for spying on his gay roommate in 2010.

3-16-12: Osama Bin Laden was working on assassination plots against President Obama and retired Army General David Petraeus.

3-16-12: A missing boy from Landover has been found safe.

3-16-12: Police are stepping up the search for a dangerous gunman who they believe could be hiding out in our city.

3-16-12: Clooney, his father, and several other demonstrators spent about 3 hours in custody charged with crossing a police line.

3-19-12: The filmmaker behind the wildly popular Kony 2012 documentary is recovering from a mysterious meltdown near his San Diego home.

3-19-12: New 911 tapes from the shooting death of a Florida teenager are now sparking outrage and the victim's family is demanding justice.

3-19-12: Tonight a move to limit the widespread use and abuse of expensive money orders in D.C. elections.

3-19-12: Still no arrest in a series of hate crimes across the district.

3-19-12: A Fairfax County man in under arrest, accused in a scheme that takes advantage of some of the most vulnerable victims.

3-19-12: Formal charges could be filed this week against the American soldier accused of killing 16 civilians during a rampage in Afghanistan last Sunday.

3-19-12: The family of a woman killed by her estranged husband is hoping her death can help save others.

3-19-12: Jewish schools in our area are stepping up security in response to the terrible shootings in Toulouse France.

3-20-12: A Missouri man died after a night of heavy drinking in Panama City Beach Florida.

3-20-12: The Arlington County police chief is denying a report that his officers are being told to meet monthly quotas.

3-20-12: D.C. council member David Catania got emotional today as the council took a final vote on the South Capitol Street Memorial Act.

3-20-12: Family, friends, and members of the Columbia Heights community will hold a rally in response to recent hate crimes.

3-20-12: Another ride-on bus is now under investigation in Montgomery County.

3-20-12: The top U.S. commander in Afghanistan says he expects American troops will be out by the end of 2014 as planned.

3-20-12: The controversy over the shooting death of an unarmed Florida teen is growing.

3-21-12: A man found shot to death inside a burning car in Prince George's County.

3-21-12: Tonight civil rights leaders are putting more pressure on Florida police to arrest a man who shot and killed an unarmed teenager.

3-21-12: A huge 25 foot boulder had broken free from a hillside in southeast Ohio.

3-21-12: To the South of France and a siege involving the suspect in the recent murders of four people at a Jewish school.

3-21-12: Investigators hope new surveillance video will help them track down the man who allegedly assaulted a teenage girl on her way home.

3-21-12: We are learning more about the 28 year old man who told police he shot Trayvon Martin.

3-21-12: State authorities returned to the scene where 28 year old George Zimmerman shot and killed 17 year old Trayvon Martin last month.

3-22-12: Stephanie Decker is the Indiana mother who laid over her children to protect them during a tornado earlier this month.

3-22-12: Police in Prince George's County arrested four men today for allegedly selling stolen bottles of liquid tide out the back of the shop.

3-22-12: Heart disease and cocaine were the cause of death in the Whitney Houston case.

3-22-12: Prince George's County police are launching a new campaign to save lives.

3-22-12: A woman, eight months pregnant, was stabbed in the stomach in her own home.

3-22-12: The police chief in Sanford, Florida says he is temporarily stepping down.

3-23-12: Police in Prince George's County are looking for the man who sexually assaulted realtor who was showing a home.

3-23-12: A large protest is expected at Freedom Plaza.

3-23-12: Now to the latest in the Trayvon Martin case where calls for justice have now reached the top levels of government.

3-23-12: A police pursuit through Chevy Chase ended with a fiery crash.

3-26-12: On the heels of an NBC news exclusive report, several lawmakers have now introduced a bill to force wireless companies to cut service to stolen cell phones.

3-26-12: The wife of the U.S. soldier accused in the massacre of 17 Afghan civilians says she doesn't believe he was involved in the killings.

3-26-12: Now to new information in the Trayvon Martin case as communities across the country rally to his defense.

3-26-12: An arrest in that troubling shooting at an Ithop restaurant in Columbia Heights.

3-27-12: two people are dead in a fire fight in Colorado.

3-27-12: Police say a student threatened to bring a gun to Potomac High School in Prince William County.

3-27-12: A government study looked at what would likely happen if terrorists set-off a nuclear device a few blocks from the White House.

3-27-12: A hate victim is speaking out for the first time since the attack.

3-27-12: A pilot is in the hospital after a bizarre chain of events about a jet blue plane.

3-27-12: Breaking news out of Prince George's County where three people including a police officer are injured during an armed robbery and chase.

3-27-12: The anger over the Trayvon Martin shooting shifted to Washington today as the parents of the teen killed by a neighborhood watch captain visited Capitol Hill.

3-27-12: A father and his 13 year old daughter were found dead inside an SUV.

3-28-12: A husband and wife face charges tonight for the murder of a beloved prep school teacher in Vermont.

3-28-12: New developments in the wrongful death lawsuit following the Virginia Tech shooting in 2007.

3-28-12: A Riverdale man was abducted at gunpoint as he was walking home from church.

3-28-12: New developments in a rash of Ride On bus fires in Montgomery County.

3-28-12: new reports portray Trayvon Martin as a high school student who was often in trouble.

3-28-12: Family members are telling their side of the story after a pit bull attack sent two Montgomery county teens to the hospital.

3-28-12: A suspicious hotel manager helped police uncover a prostitution ring being a run in one of his own rooms.

3-29-12: A couple is now facing charges as police reveal how they allegedly lured the woman to a dark road and strangled her.

3-29-12: The JetBlue pilot whose breakdown caused an emergency landing lost his father in a plane crash.

3-29-12: New video is creating more confusion in the shooting death of an unarmed teen in Florida.

3-29-12: An underage prostitution ring in Fairfax County was busted.

3-30-12: The family of a Maryland woman, killed by her estranged husband, is fighting for a state law to be changed.

3-30-12: A legal victory for Virginia Tech in connection with the 2007 shooting rampage.

3-30-12: The attorney for the U.S. soldier accused of killing 17 Afghan civilians says the government is hiding evidence from the defense.

3-30-12: The mayor in Sanford, Florida says he overruled police and released the 911 calls in the Trayvon Martin case.

3-30-12: A violent end to the Van Halen concert after a couple got into a confrontation with someone over a taxi cab.

4-2-12: An NFL cheerleader is accused of having sex with one of her students when she was a high school teacher in Kentucky.

4-2-12: This morning, Kyle Dyer returned to the anchor desk at KUSA, the NBC affiliate here.

4-2-12: Many police departments across the country use cell phone tracking often without court orders.

4-2-12: Today FBI agents began questioning potential witnesses in the neighborhood where Trayvon Martin was shot and killed.

4-2-12: The death toll has climbed following a shooting at a Christian college in east Oakland.

4-2-12: A special prosecutor has decided that a group of impartial citizens is the best way to determine if any charges should be filed in connection to a deadly police involved shooting.

4-2-12: The D.C. taxicab commission is warning cab drivers to watch their behavior after several reports of passengers being attacked.

4-2-12: 7 shootings in over 72 hours in Prince George's County.

4-3-12: The photo lineup has played a big role in criminal convictions for years but some recent cases show witnesses can sometimes choose the wrong person.

4-3-12: In the Trayvon Martin shooting case, the FBI interviewed a friend of George Zimmerman, the neighborhood watch volunteer who shot and killed the Florida teen.

4-3-12: Police believe a husband shot his wife and then turned the gun on himself.

4-3-12: The driver involved in a fiery crash in Chevy Chase that killed two teenagers has died from his injuries.

4-3-12: A little boy caught in the middle of crossfire is recovering and his parents are coming to face to face with the man accused of opening fire.

4-3-12: We're learning more about the former nursing student accused of gunning down 7 people at a small college in Oakland, California.

4-5-12: 40 people from across Virginia are under arrest after an undercover operation targeting child pornography.

4-5-12: The judge in the Jerry Sandusky sex abuse case says he won't rule on a motion to dismiss the charges until next week.

4-6-12: The controversy over the killing of Florida teen Trayvon Martin has lawmakers in that state taking a closer look at the "stand your ground" law.

4-9-12: New details in the case of the NFL cheerleader accused of having sex with a teenage boy.

4-9-12: A Prince William County man is being called a hero for his quick thinking during a house fire on Saturday.

4-9-12: People at a Virginia Beach apartment complex are trying to salvage what they can after an F-18 fighter jet crash last Friday.

4-9-12: The special prosecutor investigating the death of an unarmed Florida teen won't send the case to a grand jury.

4-9-12: A six year old child is dead in an accidental shooting.

4-10-12: local police are joining forces with the wireless industry to make stealing smart phones less profitable.

4-10-12: There's been a mistrial in the case involving an acid on a mother and daughter in Prince George's county.

4-10-12: Police arrested a 20 year old Waldorf man accused of selling drugs out of his ice cream truck.

4-10-12: An office shot and killed 26 year old Michael Anthony Bailey in Landover last night.

4-10-12: A 6 year old accidentally shot and killed himself last night with a gun he found in a Spiderman backpack.

4-10-12: Craig Sonner just announced he has withdrawn from the case because they have lost contact with Zimmerman.

4-11-12: Tonight D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray says he'll announce a new initiative to stop bullying.

4-11-12: George Zimmerman will face charges in the shooting death of Trayvon Martin.

4-12-12: Two men pleaded guilty today for their roles in a teen prostitution ring in Fairfax County.

4-12-12: Prince George's County police answered questions this morning afternoon about why one of their officers shot a man this morning in Temple Hills.

4-12-12: Police uncover a home improvement scheme in Maryland.

4-13-12: In Loudon County, 14 fires in the last two years have stemmed from fires that started from cigarettes totaling 3 and a half million dollars in damages.

4-13-12: More fallout over the sudden resignation of Best Buy's CEO.

4-13-12: A dramatic take down in Vietnam as a police officer tried to pull over the driver of a bus.

4-13-12: How Mayor Corey Booker saved his neighbor from a burning house.

4-13-12: A small New Hampshire town is mourning the loss of their police chief just days before he was set to retire.

4-13-12: In Florida, shooting suspect George Zimmerman may be out of jail by the end of next week.

4-13-12: FBI agents have raided ACT College.

4-13-12: Someone shot a pharmacy employee in a botched robbery attempt at a rite aid in D.C.

4-16-12: New information on the university of Virginia lacrosse player convicted of killing his ex-girlfriend.

4-16-12: The search is still on for the man who shot a rite aid employee in a botched robbery attempt last Friday.

4-16-12: A warning tonight from police about a robbery scheme in which victims are lured from the safety of their cars by a staged accident.

4-16-12: The sex scandal involving secret service members may involve more people than first thought.

4-17-12: The Washington Humane Society is trying to figure out who set a dangerous animal trap in northwest D.C.

4-17-12: A troubling study shows how many teens are getting access to alcohol from their own parents.

4-17-12: A woman on Capitol Hill fended off a would be robber.

4-18-12: Were learning about what may have happen to drive a Texas woman to gun down a new mother and kidnap her 3 day old son.

4-18-12: a 91 year old man is recovering tonight after crashing his car into a popular restaurant.

4-18-12: The pentagon is battling another public relations disaster in Afghanistan.

4-19-12: Closing arguments today in the trial of five men accused in one of the deadliest series of shootings in D.C.

4-19-12: Sexual misconduct allegations have rocked a local catholic community.

4-19-12: A man was found beaten to death early this morning in an alley near the intersection of Oates Street and Bladensburg road.

4-20-12: A Prince George's County volunteer firefighter made a big milestone today in recovering from serious burns he received battling a house fire.

4-20-12: At least three more secret service agents are expected to lose their jobs tonight for their roles in the prostitution scandal in Columbia.

4-20-12: A Florida judge set a 150 thousand dollar bail today for shooting suspect George Zimmerman.

4-23-12: The jury was chosen today in the retrial of baseball's Roger Clemens who's accused of perjury.

4-23-12: The U.S. marine accused of stabbing another marine to death is expected to be in court this afternoon.

4-23-12: Jennifer Hudson struggled to hold back tears today when she testified at the trial of the man charged with killing 3 members of her family.

4-23-12: the number of agents accused of soliciting prostitutes during a mission in Columbia rose to 12.

4-23-12: George Zimmerman walked out of jail last night in Sanford, Florida.

4-24-12: The parents of a missing Arizona girl are now allowed to go back inside their home.

4-24-12: A 10 year old girl was the first witness called to stand today against community activist Michael Gardner.

4-24-12: The deaths of 5 people inside a home in Oxon Hill after one of the worst carbon monoxide incidents.

4-25-12: Two dogs responsible for vicious attack in the D.C. neighborhood are no longer a threat.

4-25-12: A scary scenario played out in front of students at Glenlg High School.

4-25-12: An 11 year old girl took the stand today against community activist Michael Gardner.

4-25-12: Firefighters and paramedics are going door-to-door in Prince George's county.

4-25-12: The cross country trip for a tourist ended in the petworth area.

4-26-12: Four people are facing charges in connection with a major drug bust at LAX airport.

4-26-12: Montgomery County police held a crash course in pedestrian accidents today.

4-26-12: Were hearing a firsthand account of a tragic accident in Oxon Hill.

4-26-12: A community activist is on trial with more DNA evidence and 10 year old witnesses.

4-26-12: The legacy of a police officer killed at Virginia Tech last year will live on here in the district.

4-26-12: Two postal workers were ambushed, held at gunpoint and robbed on the job.

4-26-12: An arrest in the murder of Phylicia Barnes.

4-26-12: A man under arrest accused of storming into a daycare center and attacking a security guard with a bat.

4-26-12: Police believe there is a link between the killing of a tourist and two other attacks.

4-27-12: The sex abuse trial of a Falls Church community activist continues.

4-27-12: Fairfax County police are investigating a disturbing case of animal abuse.

4-27-12: Rodney King recently weighed in on the Trayvon Martin case.

4-27-12: A suspect is now in custody after being caught with a bloody hammer in his book bag.

4-30-12: Investigators are looking to see if any safety improvements are needed after a horrific crash in New York.

4-30-12: Five University of Maryland students all victims of a home invasion.

4-30-12: A vigil in downtown D.C. today marked the birthday of a Maryland man jailed in Cuba.

4-30-12: The Falls Church community activist accused of molesting young girls at his daughter's slumber party took the stand today.

4-30-12: A man wounded in that series of hammer attacks in Northwest Washington is describing his ordeal.

4-30-12: The state of Maryland is at the center of a national debate over DNA and a person's right to privacy.

4-30-12: Jurors at the John Edwards trial heard tearful testimony today from Cheri Young, the wife of Edwards' former aide, Andrew Young.

4-30-12: Were hearing some terrifying moments on tape in the murder of Oscar winner Jennifer Hudson's family members.

4-30-12: D.C. police are still on the hunt for a man who sexually assaulted a Georgetown University student on campus.

4-30-12: No bail for a man accused of killing his pregnant girlfriend in Prince Georges County.

5-1-12: A fire that swept through a home killing a police captain, his wife, and their two teenage daughters.

5-1-12: Day one of deliberations in the sex abuse trial of a Falls Church community activist ends without a verdict.

5-1-12: Pit bulls are no longer "innocent until proven dangerous" under Maryland law.

5-1-12: Five men are under arrest for allegedly trying to blow up a bridge south of Cleveland, Ohio.

5-1-12: A deadly crime wave in the district.

5-1-12: Firefighters battling a three alarm fire at an apartment complex.

5-2-12: A deadly hazing trial at Florida A & M has led to criminal charges against more than a dozen people.

5-2-12: Highway crews are adding new concrete barriers to the road where seven people were killed near the Bronx Zoo.

5-2-12: Michael Gardner has been sentenced to 22 years in prison.

5-2-12: Police in Montgomery County are on alert tonight after an incident involving a police impersonator.

5-2-12: A New Jersey mom is accused of letting her five year old daughter use a tanning bed.

5-2-12: A Falls Church political activist was convicted earlier today on three counts of molesting young girls at his daughter's slumber party.

5-2-12: News 4 has obtained cell phone video that shows the fast moving flames through an apartment complex in Chevy Chase.

5-2-12: A member of the Air Force honor Guard is in the hospital tonight after a violent attack at a bar in college park.

5-3-12: An autopsy is being performed today on NFL great Junior Seau.

5-3-12: A New Jersey mother is accused of letting her five year old daughter use of tanning bed.

5-3-12: A man trusted to protect America's most valuable documents and files admits to stealing them and selling them on eBay.

5-3-12: A firefighter is recovering from heart surgery had the scare of his life when a group of thieves broke into his home with him inside.

5-3-12: Another aide who worked closely with John Edwards testified today about efforts to keep his affair with Rielle Hunter a secret.

5-3-12: Neighbors in Aspen Hill consider a 4 year old girl lucky to be alive.

5-3-12: Harry Thomas Junior is sentenced to more than three years in prison for lining his pockets with taxpayer money meant for children.

5-4-12: A group of thieves break into a jewelry store.

5-4-12: A 2 alarm fire is causing major mess in the Columbia Heights area.

5-4-12: Police in Fairfax County say road rage led to a deadly encounter on a neighborhood street.

5-4-12: A Bladensburg woman has been convicted of arranging for a mother to be doused with acid while she was holding her toddler.

5-4-12: We begin with a deadly shooting at a place of worship.

5-15-12: Today we're learning more about how hysterical George Huguely was the moment he learned he killed his ex-girlfriend.

5-15-12: A memorial service was held this morning on Capitol Hill for law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty.

5-15-12: John Edwards is expected to take the stand at any moment.

5-15-12: A man shot and killed by police while walking his dogs last night in Southeast.

5-15-12: Police say her mother turned her back for one second and her son was gone.

5-15-12: Chicago police are urging a newlywed to turn himself in.

5-16-12: Federal authorities in Dallas are profiling a suspect and offering a reward after a series of scares involving white powder.

5-16-12: Two Howard University students shot in a daring home invasion.

5-17-12: Today we learned more about the untimely death of Mary Richardson Kennedy.

5-17-12: A developing story in North Carolina where closing arguments have wrapped up in the John Edwards corruption trial.

5-17-12: The federal government calls it one of the worst corruption schemes in recent memory.

5-18-12: Prosecutors have released a mountain of evidence in the Trayvon Martin case.

5-18-12: A possible break in a string of brazen armed robberies in Prince George's County.

5-18-12: Alcohol and speed are both factors in a deadly crash this morning in Bowie.

5-18-12: Two teenagers shot outside the Rockville metro station.

5-21-12: A man is arrested for two sexual assaults in Prince George's County.

5-21-12: A case of mistaken identity led to the arrest of the wrong man.

5-21-12: 49 year old Judy Shinogle was driving northbound yesterday when a minivan driving crossed the median slamming into her vehicle.

5-22-12: A memorial service held last night in New York for Mary Richardson Kennedy.

5-22-12: An arrest in connection to the murder of an up and coming rap artist.

5-22-12: 7 Prince George's County nightclubs are facing criminal charges for allegedly not paying taxes.

5-22-12: A woman calls 911 when her husband is having trouble breathing but is answered with snoring.

5-22-12: There were tense moments inside the third street tunnel after a bus fire filled the tunnel with smoke.

5-23-12: A Prince William County teacher who works with emotionally disturbed students in under arrest.

5-23-12: A college student is killed while riding her bike.

5-23-12: A lieutenant with D.C. fire and EMS now charged in a bizarre burglary.

5-23-12: D.C. police are investigating a mysterious attack that left a local woman hospitalized.

5-24-12: Police are on the hunt tonight for people who scammed an elderly woman out of thousands of dollars.

5-24-12: An investigation is underway into the burning of police and firefighter personnel files.

5-24-12: Police are questioning a man who says he killed the 6 year old boy, Etan Patz.

5-24-12: Two firefighters remain on sick leave after several of their coworkers got sick.

5-25-12: Undercover officers in D.C. helped catch a mother who used her 6 year old son to steal an iPhone.

5-25-12: A developing story in Miami where people on board an American Airlines flight had to stop an unruly passenger.

5-25-12: Police in Fairfax County are trying to figure out if a stabbing and shooting are related.

5-25-12: A California man is exonerated 10 years after a high school friend falsely accused him of kidnap and rape.

5-25-12: Audio recordings from Charles Manson's right hand man.

5-28-12: Fairfax County police are trying to figure out who slashed several farm animals at a popular park over the weekend.

5-28-12: Former British Prime Minister Tony Blair testified today at a parliamentary hearing sparked by the UK hacking scandal.

5-28-12: Fairfax police are investigating a shooting that involved one of their officers.

5-28-12: Fairfax County police are trying to figure out who slashed several farm animals at a popular park over the weekend.

5-28-12: Former British Prime Minister Tony Blair testified today at a parliamentary hearing sparked by the UK hacking scandal.

5-28-12: Fairfax police are investigating a shooting that involved one of their officers.

5-29-12: Police in Miami are hoping that witnesses can help them piece together what happened during an unusual and gruesome crime over the weekend.

5-29-12: New details in a mid-air collision that killed two people in Northern Virginia.

5-29-12: A veteran metro employee seriously injured after getting pinned under a train.

5-30-12: One of the oldest cold case murders in Montgomery County may have been solved by accident.

5-30-12: Tonight a deadly police shooting has turned into a case of murder.

5-30-12: A babysitter is facing charges after letting three young boys wander off on their own.

5-30-12: new details in a mid-air collision over Fauquier County.

5-31-12: Imagine sitting at the bar in your favorite neighborhood watering hole and a truck comes through the wall.

5-31-12: A violent incident played out in front of neighbors on a quiet street in Prince George's County

5-31-12: A former high school football star recently exonerated from a rape charge will resume his dream of playing in the NFL.

5-31-12: A teenager from Bowie was struck and killed by a freight train last night.

5-31-12: A judge has declared a mistrial in the John Edwards case.

6-4-12: A brazen thief steals a large Pittsburgh Steelers banner from a home in D.C.

6-4-12: Several farm animals slashed and wounded in Fairfax County.

6-4-12: D.C. police are seeing a spike in crime as the season gets warmer.

6-4-12: George Zimmerman could get out of jail for a second time if a new bond hearing is granted.

6-4-12: The billboard campaign that led to the arrest of the East Coast rapist will soon be used to find the killer of a Virginia tech student.

6-4-12: A mother stabbed to death in the district.

6-5-12: One person is dead and another is clinging to life after a fiery crash in Montgomery County.

6-5-12: Police discovered a meth lab inside a Maryland hotel room.

6-5-12: Jury selection began today in the Jerry Sandusky sex abuse trial.

6-5-12: The trial of a man accused of running down a mother and son while driving drunk got underway in Alexandria today.

6-5-12: Tonight an occupy D.C. protest against foreclosure turns into an physical confrontation.

6-6-12: Tonight an 8 year old Alexandria girl is being hailed a hero for her quick wit and thinking and composure after a serious accident at home.

6-6-12: a judge has convicted a man in the drunken driving death of an 8 year old boy.

6-6-12: Police say excessive speed is to blame for a deadly accident in Fairfax.

KIDS & FAMILY

3-21-12: Anthony, our Wednesday's Child had the opportunity to get up and close with elephants recently.

3-21-12: A man in Georgetown has thousands of bees on his roof and he likes it that way.

3-22-12: A new report from the National Center for Health Statistics finds half of all marriages still end in divorce.

3-22-12: Sunday is National Medal of Honor Day.

3-22-12: D.C. Mayor Vincent Gray is holding his first public meeting tonight to discuss his efforts to woo the Washington Redskins.

3-27-12: They saved countless lives in Iran and tonight, 5 landmine detection dogs are here in Northern Virginia ready to start retirement.

3-28-12: It's the largest jackpot in history, half a billion dollars and your chances winning are 1 in 176 million.

3-28-12: Overweight adults who exercised and took a green coffee extract lost an average of 17 pounds in a 22 week span.

3-28-12: Alicia Silverstone is making headlines by feeding her 11 month old son by mouth.

3-28-12: Barbara Harrison takes us to the Verizon Center where two boys in foster care got to meet the Wizard's mascot on this week's Wednesday's Child.

3-28-12: Military Service members who sacrifice so much can't find work when they return home.

3-29-12: The unseasonably warm weather left residents with a rat problem.

3-29-12: After days of speculation we know the true identity of "batman."

3-29-12: A warning about the dangers of light drinking.

3-30-12: A new movie tackling a childhood epidemic hit the big screen today but it won't be playing at any local theatres.

3-30-12: This morning, our dear friend and colleague Joe Krebs signed off for the last time.

3-30-12: "Batman" found himself on the wrong side of the law in Montgomery County.

4-3-12: Church eviction of a 79 year old woman who overcome so many challenges.

5-17-12: Donna Summer lost her battle with breast cancer today.

5-17-12: Music fans are mourning the loss of Chuck Brown.

5-18-12: Liz Crenshaw joins us with some sun safety tips you can use for Memorial Day weekend.

5-28-12: Back here in Washington, residents and tourists alike paid their respects by attending the National Memorial Day Parade downtown.

5-28-12: The Boys & Girls Club in the district aim to help youth in our area grown socially and academically.

5-28-12: The U.S. Botanic Garden in downtown Washington opened a new exhibit for the summer called "Savage Gardens."

5-28-12: A groom to be is raising the bar for wedding proposals.

5-28-12: An annual Memorial Day tradition rolled through the streets of Rockville today.

